

On Sturm-type theorems for nonlinear equations

Rogachev Vladimir Viktorovich

Abstract

Sturm theorem states, that solution to second-order linear ODE can have only so many zeroes between two zeroes of another solution. We will compare previously known generalisations of the Sturm theorem for high-order linear ODE and author's result, that can be described as Sturm-type theorem for nonlinear equations of high order.